No More Tree Cutting.

In your issue of Wednesday I note a most commendable editorial anent the proposed improvement (?) of the mall. Per-it has taken. The editorial in question expresses the sentiments of many a Washingtonian, and I am glad that one of our influential papers cries out at the destruction of our parks. It is a shame the way our beautiful capital is being denuded of her chief charm. As for the outrage contemplated upon our park of parks, the mail, upon which so much money and so many patient years have been spent, it is little short of a crime. In the Smithsonian grounds alone are a good hundred varieties of flowering trees. The collection is one of the finest known, containing many rare trees and representing years of care.

Must these be destroyed because a few men want to stand in the middle of a road and look down it at the Capitol or up it at the monument? If they must have a boulevard, why not build it around the mall, leaving the parks intact? I beg of you, in the name of all that is truly artistic, do all you can, use all your widespread influence to prevent the destruction of our beloved city's crown of glory-her trees. Put a stop to the wholesale wood chopping that is going on. A curb needs raising an inch at one end of a block; all the trees on that block, no matter how fine, are sacrificed.

In one block, not a mile away from the city hall, they have cut down nineteen them in fine condition and many of them

Wayfarer Given Transportation.

William Campbell, twenty-one years old. who said he lived at 184 15th street. Milwaukee, was furnished transportation to Chicago yesterday afternoon by Sanitary Officer Frank. He reached this city Monday afternoon, having tramped here from New York, where he landed from beyond the ocean. His story to the police was that he shipped on a coaling vessel after he left the employ of the Pinkerton detective agency, when the vessel was near Bilboa, Spain. The craft went down about the time the members of the crew were retiring for the night, and most of them were without clothing. When he finally got ashore, he said, the British consul sent him to Glasgow, from where the American consul furnished him transportation to this country.

The coaling vessel, Campbell stated, was wrecked the 27th of April, and he landed in New York three days ago. He expects his friends to furnish him transportation from Chicago to his home.

>>>>>>>>> With Low Vitality

You need a gentle stimulant, one that will help nature. With the digestive process perfect there will be no low vitality.

Myers' Pure Malt Whiskey

> Taken as your physician says, will insure good digestion, if the trouble is not chronic. It will supply exactly the elements that normally should appear.

In "The Truth" Angelo Myers tells things every man and woman ought to know. Free at any grocery or liquor
